Heather-

Below is the draft readout. I wasn't sure how much of the Exec Order language you wanted in here. I highlighted what I think can be deleted. But I did link to the original release announcing the review. Also, just verifying that the comment period opens Friday. In your e-mail the language said "tomorrow." Thanks!

* Readout of Secretary Zinke's Visit to Bears Ears National Monument*

Secretary meets with Nature Conservancy, land owners and ranchers

KANAB, Utah – Yesterday, U.S. Secretary of the Interior Ryan Zinke

wrapped-up day three of a four-day listening tour regarding the Bears Ears

National Monument and Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument, both of which are under review under President Trump's Executive Order 13792, issued April 26, 2017.

Today the Secretary will meet with Garfield and Kane County local officials and tour the Grand Staircase Escalate Monument.

Press availability: Kanab Airport at 6:00 PM. Only news media who RSVP and are able to provide credentials at the gate will be permitted through airport security. All members of the news media must RSVP to

Interior_Press@ios.doi.gov with the name, phone number and email address for every member of the reporting team.

Photos of the entire tour are available on the Department's Flickr page

Friday opens the formal public comment period for the review of the monuments.

A public comment period is not required for monument designations under the

Antiquities Act; however, Secretary of the Interior Ryan Zinke and President Trump both strongly believe that local input is a critical component of federal land management

Department of the Interior, 1849 C Street NW, Washington, DC 20240.

Written comments relating to the Bears Ears National Monument must be submitted within 15 days of publication of that notice. Written comments

relating to all other designations subject to Executive Order 13792
must be submitted within 60 days of that date.
